

ASBESTOS VICTIMS MEMORIAL DAY BREAKFAST SERVICE 2016

On Friday 25th November please join with us at Jack Watkins Asbestos Victims Memorial Park Kilburn at 8:00am for this memorable Service.

By courtesy of McMahon Services the Service will again be held under the cover of a huge marquee. This park is the first Memorial Park in Australia that honours the victims of asbestos related diseases by way of engraved Memorial Pavers.

There are now over 120 engraved pavers, each remembering a loved one lost.

Memorial Candles will again be lit on each of the memorial pavers.

(Memorial Pavers can still be ordered by 5th November to be in place for Memorial Day)

The service will be officially opened at 8:00 am

ORDER OF SERVICE

7:30 am Breakfast will be served courtesy of SA Unions

7:45 am Arrival of Dignitaries

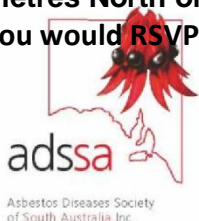

8:00 am Service begins

Welcoming speeches by various dignitaries

8:15 am Memorial Service –

Conducted by a Civil Celebrant with the Service concluding at approx 9:00 am with the launching of 100 balloons by all guests in memory of those they have lost to asbestos related diseases

(Jack Watkins Memorial Reserve is situated by Bus Stop 19, Churchill Road Kilburn, approx. 500 metres North of Regency Road on left hand side) Right next to COSTCO. It would be appreciated if you would RSVP by 21st November by phoning 8241 7297 or emailing admin@adssa-inc.com.au

“The Victim is Our Priority”

