

ASBESTOS VICTIMS MEMORIAL WALKWAY

JACK WATKINS MEMORIAL RESERVE
CHURCHILL RD. KILBURN SA

The City of Port Adelaide Enfield have placed a Memorial Walkway leading from car-park to the original Memorial, opened on 30th August 2003. The Jack Watkins Reserve was set up to honour those that worked at the old Islington Railway Workshops. There will be 100 m2 of pavers within the walkway, each being capable of being replaced by your special paver in memory of your lost one. Each paver is 400mm x 400mm

The Memorial Walkway was officially opened during the Asbestos Victims Memorial Day Service on Friday 25th November 2011. Both the Premier of South Australia (Hon Jay Weatherill) and the Mayor of the City of Port Adelaide Enfield (Gary Johanson) officiated during the Asbestos Victims Memorial Day Service

You are now invited to make a tax deductible gift to ADSSA and we will arrange your special paver by filling in the form below. The cost is the actual cost of producing each paver together with a small margin for later maintenance. Please fill in the form below and return to Memorial Pavers Donation – ADSSA – 7 Ninth St, Bowden SA 5007 together with your payment.
